Tour highlights

Experience the best of Tajikistan's Seven Lakes (Haftkul) in a single day on this unforgettable journey from Samarkand. Cross the border into Tajikistan to explore the historic city of Panjikent, stroll through its lively local market, and continue to the breathtaking Seven Lakes, each renowned for its unique colors and stunning mountain scenery.

Enjoy an authentic Tajik lunch at a local teahouse and capture unforgettable photos along the way. This tour is perfect for travelers seeking scenic beauty, cultural encounters and a truly memorable adventure.

Difficulty: Easy. Long day by car (departure 7:00 AM, return to Samarkand in the evening) with two border crossings; only short, easy walks at the lakes and in Panjikent bazaar.

- 1 Seven Lakes (Haftkul) – a chain of mountain lakes, each with its own color
- 2 Panjikent – the first Tajik town across the border, with lunch at a local teahouse and a stop at the bustling bazaar
- 3 Two countries in one day – cross from Uzbekistan into Tajikistan and back

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY

1

Samarkand - Panjikent - 7 Lakes - Samarkand

In the morning at 7:00 AM, you will meet your driver at the hotel reception in Samarkand and begin your transfer to the Uzbekistan-Tajikistan border. After crossing into Tajikistan, you will change drivers and continue your journey to Panjikent, the first city in Tajikistan. There, you will enjoy lunch at a local teahouse before heading to the scenic Seven Lakes, where you can take photos and explore the beautiful surroundings. On the way back, there will be a stop in Panjikent to visit the bustling local market (bazaar). In the evening, you will cross back into Uzbekistan and return to your hotel in Samarkand.
